

Dr. Tim Spiro gives a thumbs up to teammates Michelle Calcaterra, Sara Follmer, and Sally Gaul, the "most fun" afternoon team.

Jim Busch, Bill Oatey, John Herrilko, and Doug Lawton paused for refreshments mid-game.

Greg Helms, Russ Eckles, Nathan Hessler, and Martin Uhle enjoy a great day on the course.

Teammates Joyce Morris, Rev. Charles Terrell, Rev. Dan Wenger, and Rev. Jim Kulma prayed that the ball would lie in green pastures and not in still waters.

Special Golf Issue

Two Perfect Days for Golf!

Community West Foundation hosts two great golf outings to support a cause that affects more and more people every day — cancer.

Keynote speaker Dr. Debra Pratt chaired the golf event.

Triumph for the Cure Golf Outing is 16 years and counting!

There was no better way to spend a Monday in June than golfing for a good cause. Great weather made for a glorious start to the 16th Annual Triumph for the Cure event, held at Red Tail Golf Club on June 29th.

Through the years, the golf classic has maintained a loyal group of supporters and this year was no exception. We had a great turnout of 116 golfers and raised over $20,000 for the Breast Health Center at Fairview Hospital to help provide the latest technology to best serve our patients. It was a day highlighted by the generosity of sponsors, contributors, foursomes, and volunteers.

We are thankful to have the charitable support of Signature Title Sponsors RPM and Fairview Hospital; VIP Sponsor The Melting Pot; and the many hole and team sponsors. We appreciate all the people who played in the event, came to the luncheon, donated to the auction, and gave in so many ways!

Extra special thanks go to the wonderful committee. Their time, energy, and dedication makes this event a success each year!

Adding to the festivities, Bob Curtin played his bagpipes to greet participants at the start of play.

Breast cancer survivor Laurie Wellman brought hope and encouragement for people facing cancer. "You will never know what it meant to me to know there were people out there who were ready in my time of need with prayers, meals, and a home made quilt".

Patrice Yascone tends the pin for teammates Carole Curtin, Shirley Yascone, and Carol Mozny.

Una Escolas, Sandy Haas, Cheryl Horwood and Kathy Glending soak up the sun and fun.

Paula Conrad, Ann Marie Shames, and Dr. Joan Palomaki with a very comfortable Roger Stewart.

Dorothy Ginley-Bahm, Jenn Brooke, Donna Coury and Becky Busa capture the winning title for the second consecutive year with a sizzling score of 67!

Patty Smith, Joan Ellis, Becky Harris and Joan Smigel scored 68 and took home second place honors.

Joyce Lesko, Kathy Wasserman, Stephanie Harrington, and Sandy Martinelli wore pink shirts as a symbol of hope for breast cancer patients.

Drive For Life
A Team Event to Fight Cancer

The 8th Annual Drive for Life Golf Outing was another winning event enjoyed by 160 golfers at Red Tail Golf Club on July 14. This year's tournament boasted gorgeous weather, plenty of enthusiastic golfers and two fabulous flights. Thanks to the generosity of our contributors, we raised over $54,000 for the Caring Continues Fund to help with expenses of patients who receive treatment at the Fairview Hospital Moll Cancer Center and the Moll Cancer Center Oncology Fund. The tournament was co-chaired by David Hessler, Community West Foundation Chair of the Board, and Bill Reidy, Chair of the Fairview/Lutheran Hospitals Board and Community West Foundation Trustee, who thanked everyone in attendance and expressed how grateful the Foundation and Fairview Hospital are for the support that will benefit so many cancer patients.

Dr. Tim Spiro, Medical Director of the Regional Cancer Centers, was also deeply touched by the generosity of all that supported the outing. "Finances present a major concern for many cancer patients," said Dr. Spiro. "Often, patients receiving treatments are unable to work. The charitable dollars from the golf outing will go into The Caring Continues Fund to help ease the struggles of cancer patients."

The event was widely supported by a strong network of sponsors including Corporate Level Sponsors Fairview Hospital, Alta Partners, Legacy Health Services, and Turner Construction; Luncheon Sponsors Perspectus Architecture and Donald Martens Ambulance Service; Hole-in-One Sponsors Boyland Acura, Lake Erie Harley-Davidson and Net Advertising Group; and the many Team Sponsors. Thanks to all of them for their generous support! And, of course, we cannot speak more highly of the efforts put forth by the Golf Committee. Thank you for making the event successful and so much fun!

Ray Marvar received a special award from David Dombrowiak recognizing his commitment as a special friend of the golf event, having served as co-chair for the past seven years.

With a score of 59, morning winners Frank Simecek, Jeff Disrud, and Hugh Taylor celebrate with teammate Rachel Spies.

Second place victory in the morning round went to Bill Reidy, Jeff Leimgruber, Mark Stevens, and Dr. Neil Smith who scored a 61.

Patrick Gallagher, Al Santilli, Janice Todd, and Dr. William Seitz, scored a 62 assuring them a third place finish in the morning.

Jeff Leimgruber, who served as past co-chair of the Drive for Life, was recognized with an award for his dedicated years of service.

Bill Reidy, event co-chair, expressed his thanks to all the attendees, sponsors, and volunteers.

Placed on the disabled list for this outing, event co-chair David Hessler and David Dombrowiak were unable to compete but hope to be back on the course soon!

It was a memorable victory for the fantastic foursome of Jerry Ribelli, Neal Madden, Roy Beres, and Fred Ribelli scoring a stunning 56 in the afternoon round. Fred also had the longest drive on hole 14.

It was an excellent team performance by the second placed afternoon team Rob Schroeder, Dale Galion, Craig Meldrum, and Brian Meldrum who scored a 60.

Scoring 60 are the third place afternoon team John Marvar, Ken Marvar, Bud Shaw, and Greg Wasilko.
